Rabbi Myron Fenster Leads A Series of Three Classes for Synagogue and Community Members

Rabbi Myron Fenster of Congregation Tifereth Israel in Greenport is leading an ongoing series of classes for synagogue and community members interested in learning the Hebrew language and discussing Jewish culture and ethnic connections. All classes are held at Congregation Tifereth Israel, a national historic site, located at 519 Fourth Street in Greenport.

On Thursdays, Rabbi Fenster offers a class titled "Learn the Hebrew Language for Prayer and Conversation," from 4 to 5 p.m., and a class called "Exploring Modern Jewish Thought," from 5:15 to 6:15 p.m. On Saturdays, following Shabbat services and a Kiddush lunch, the rabbi teaches a class titled "Bringing the Talmud Out of the Shadows." And each Sunday, over bagels and coffee at 10 a.m., the rabbi and class participants discuss "The Outrage of the Week!"

Prior to his post in Greenport, Rabbi Fenster was for 36 years the spiritual leader of the Shelter Rock Jewish Center in Roslyn, and interim rabbi at the Jewish Center of the Hamptons in East Hampton.
